

Sticky knowledge

- Egypt is a country in North Eastern Africa in the Northern Hemisphere.
- It has a hot climate and much of the country is desert.
- Egypt is home to the River Nile, the longest river in the world, which goes through much of Africa and enters the Mediterranean sea.

Key Vocabulary

Climate- the average weather conditions of an area over a prolonged period of time.

Biome- areas with similar climate, plants and wildlife.

Desert- a biome with very low rainfall, creating sandy conditions.

Cairo- the capital city of Egypt

Hemisphere- half of the 'sphere shape' of the Earth.

Skills I can...

- I can locate 3 countries in each hemisphere using a world map and 2 major cities outside of the UK.
- I can compare the geographical features and biomes of Egypt to that of different areas of Earth.
- I can explain the features of a river and recall facts about the River Nile.
- I can compare the human and physical features of Cairo to our local area.