

Dear Lord,

Please help us to love each other as you have loved us. Help us to treat others as we want to be treated- as you taught us. Help us to pick one another up when they are down, and to show love and compassion to help one another. Please guide us when our loved ones need us, give us the strength to show your love to them. Thank you for your forgiveness from our sins and please help us to show that forgiveness to others. We love you, Lord, and we are happy and grateful that you created us.

Amen
